Hotels near Baltimore Washington -Thurgood Marshall International Airport

BWI is a 30 minute – 1 hour drive (depending on traffic) from Goddard, using the Baltimore-Washington Parkway.   Traffic is very heavy in the morning between 7-9 AM. The link is provided in case travelers have special discount hotel arrangements with any of the accommodations near the airport.   There is also a shuttle bus between the airport and the Greenbelt Metro (and a bus transfer stop nearer to GSFC), but a taxi would be required to get to GSFC.

Note that it is also possible to take the Metro from Ronald Reagan National Airport to the Greenbelt Metro station; both the Courtyard by Marriott and the Greenbelt Marriott are located within a mile of the Greenbelt Metro station.
